

Experience February at MoonTree Community Studios

In a Slump? Mold that is.

Creating bowls or plates from clay using slump molds.

2/4 & 2/18 $45

Wood Carving, A Beginning/Intermediate Experience

Join us for an 8-week introduction to carving, meeting once a week. Starting 2/1 $125

Paper Making

Make your own paper for journals, books, or whatever you desire. 2/3 $30

For the Birds

Build a Peterson Birdhouse and a window sill bird feeder.

2/4 $75

Introduction to Weaving

This experience will give access to the weaving studio for three weeks, with a facilitator on Saturdays 2/18, 2/25 from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm. $300

The Story Inside, A Storytelling Retreat

Prepare to laugh, draw, move, listen, vocalize, drum, play intensely and entertain silence.

During this three-day storytelling experience, participants will create their own personal fairy tale and learn the performance skills needed to effectively narrate it.

Facilitated By: George Schricker
2/3 to 2/5 $255 for experience and meals only, cost with rooms start at $345.

Environmental and Social Responsibility Series

This environmental awareness film and discussion series is designed to educate, promote, and provoke dialogue on a variety of ecological, environmental, sociocultural, and sustainability issues that affect our modern society and the health of the planet. FREE

Mindfulness and Creativity, A Day Exploring the Imagination

Rev. Dr. David Moffett-Moore will facilitate a day engaging the senses, experiencing the present and enlightening the Spirit.

2/11 from 10:00 am to 3:00 pm $45

Holding On and Letting Go

In this 90-minute reflection time, a setting is provided to use various mediums to create within the mandala. Vera Smucker Shenk will facilitate. Fridays 2/24 to 3/30 $25/each or $115 for all 6

Deadline for registration varies based on date and time of experience. Most registrations are due at least one week prior to experience. Contact MoonTree TODAY!

Email: moontree@poorhandmaids.org or call 574-935-1712. MoonTree Community Studios is a Ministry of the Poor Handmaids of Jesus Christ.